AGREEMENT–MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

THE UNIVERSITÉ DE MONTRÉAL

AND

JAZAN UNIVERSITY

WHEREAS the two institutions are united by a community of interests and goals in the academic and cultural fields;

WHEREAS universities are precisely institutions bound by their very essence, their purpose and their goals to establish channels of communication allowing the exchange of scientific and cultural knowledge;

The Université de Montréal (Canada), represented by its rector, Pr. Guy Breton, and Jazan University (Saudi Arabia), represented by its rector, Pr. Professor Mohammed Bin Ali Al-Haya‘īzæ

Hereby decide to establish formal ties between them based on the following provisions:

Article 1. - GOAL

Enhance the quality of each partner’s research and training activities by benefiting from their convergence of interests.

Article 2. - COMMUNICATIONS

The two parties shall exchange information and offer one another reciprocal support on academic, cultural and administrative matters through exchanges of publications and other appropriate actions.

The two parties shall consult one another whenever they deem necessary, and specifically to jointly assess the development of teaching and research actions and to draw up a record of actions already achieved or currently underway.

Article 3. - COOPERATION

This Agreement aims to further the launch of collaborative efforts in the following areas:

a) The two universities intend to develop joint research projects.

b) They also intend to exchange faculty members.
c) They will create a student exchange program.

d) They will create specific summer training courses.

e) They will create student and interns training program.

f) They agreed to encourage and give priority to candidates from both institutions when they apply to post-graduate programs.

Article 4. - JOINT RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

The parties will seek the development of joint research activities in the fields of mutual interest (especially in Medical fields).

Article 5. - EXCHANGE OF FACULTY MEMBERS

The two parties shall promote, within the current regulatory framework:

- The exchange of personnel for periods that may range from a few days to several months.
- Mutual participation in conferences, seminars and internships organized by one of the universities.

Article 6. - TERMS OF THE STUDENT EXCHANGE PROGRAM

All candidates admitted to either educational system with the purpose of following a duly authorized study program must comply with the following terms:

- Have completed the equivalent of at least one year of full-time study in the program in which the candidate is enrolled in the home institution and remain enrolled in said program during their stay in the receiving institution.
- Possess an excellent academic record.
- Meet the specific requirements of both the home and host institutions.

Candidates accepted into the exchange program:

- Remain enrolled full-time in the Home University to which they pay their tuition fees. The participating institutions agree not to require the payment of tuition fees from the students they welcome.
- Will study full-time for at least one semester but no longer than one academic year in the host institution, in a study program approved by the home institution.
- Will generally be accepted by the host university, while the host university retains the right to review the students nominated for exchange and to make final admission decisions. The host university shall provide formal letters of admission and other documents for the students to enrol and study in the host university. Participating students will need to apply within the host university abiding by local procedures and application deadlines;
- Are responsible for:
  a) Various costs required by the host institution (administration, student activity and Health insurance fees), said costs to be made known in advance.
b) Transportation and living expenses (lodging and food) for themselves and their dependents.
   • Must qualify for the financial assistance programs to which their enrolment in the home institution entitles them.

For the students, these exchanges will result in an academic transcript issued by the host institution making it possible to validate this training by the home institution.

Article 7. – TERMS OF SUMMER TRAINING COURSES

The two parties shall promote, within the current regulatory framework:
   • Up on request, the other party may conduct short courses or specialized Diplomas, in areas of medical technology; for students, demonstrators, hospital staff and technician. These programs will be specifically designed to meet the needs and objectives of the requesting party.
   • The financial agreements pertaining to the execution of these courses will be established through consultations between the two universities.

Article 8. - TERMS OF STUDENT AND INTERNS TRAINING PROGRAM

The two parties shall promote, within the current regulatory framework:
   • The training of students and interns in hospitals, labs, departments and associated Medical centers.
   • The financial agreements pertaining to the execution of these programs will be established through consultations between the two universities in accordance with each cooperation program.

Article 9. - FUNDING

The exchange of faculty members will be jointly financed (depending on the availability of funds): the sending institution would normally take at its charge travel expenses while the host institution would provide funding for living expenses.

The financial agreements pertaining to the execution of projects will be established through consultations between the two universities in accordance with each cooperation program.

For the achievement of cooperation activities, the two universities shall take appropriate steps with likely granting bodies.

Any subsidy granted for cooperation activities shall be administered by the institution which initiated the request.
Article 10. - MODIFICATIONS

The present Agreement may be amended by mutual agreement at the request of one of the parties. Said amendments shall come into effect as of the date set by both institutions.

Article 11. - DURATION OF THE AGREEMENT

The present Agreement will come into effect on the date of its signing by the authorities and will remain in force for a period of five years. It may then be renewed for additional periods. Each party may move, in writing and with six months' notice to this effect, to amend or terminate the Agreement.
